
Bruce A. Sharp

Director, Program Analysis & Business Transformation Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Acquisition and Logistics Management

Mr. Sharp began his federal service as an accountant assistant with the Health Resources Administration in 1974 as a Co-Op student and worked as an accountant in the Cost Advisory Branch after graduation until 1981.

In April 1981, Mr. Sharp joined the Naval Air Systems Command. During the subsequent seven years, he served as a contract specialist on the P-3 Orion, S-3 Viking, and T-45 Goshawk aircraft programs as well as the F-404 engine program.

In 1987 he was promoted to Procuring Contracting Officer for the X-31 aircraft program, Infrared Search and Track System for the F-14 Aircraft, Fleet Electronic Warfare Support Group and various communication programs until 1991 when he was selected as the Procuring Contracting Officer for the SH-60B, SH-60F, HH-60H and HH-60J helicopter programs.

Mr. Sharp was promoted in 1996, to Head, Anti-Submarine Warfare Contracts Division and assumed responsibility for the P-3 and S-3 aircraft and SH/CH/VH-60 and H-53 helicopters.

In 1999 he was assigned as the Deputy Department Head for Policy and Management within the contracts organization and was reassigned as the Deputy for the Aircraft Support Contracts Department in 2000.

Mr. Sharp was promoted to the Senior Executive Service in July 2002 as the Director, Tactical Aircraft and Missiles Contracts Department where in support of Program Executive Officer for Tactical Aircraft programs, his responsibilities included the F-18, E-2, and E/A-6B aircraft programs as well as other missile and electronic warfare programs.

Mr. Sharp earned his bachelor's of science degree in accounting in 1978 from the Bowie State College, Bowie, Maryland.

In October 2006, Mr. Sharp was reassigned to the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Research Development and Acquisition as Director, Program Analysis and Business Transformation under the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Acquisition and Logistics Management where he is currently serving.